

ANNUAL REPORT: JULY 1, 2006 - JUNE 30, 2007

MISSION STATEMENT

"To promote the humane treatment of animals, prevent cruelty to animals and provide education to enhance the human-animal bond."

n n n

The San Diego Humane Society and SPCA is a private, nonprofit organization that receives no public or government funding.

SPCA provides vital services to animals and people alike through sheltering and adopting animals, providing positive reinforcement training for adoptable and owned animals through public training classes, investigating animal cruelty and neglect, providing adult and youth education programs, sharing animals through pet-assisted therapy and rescuing animals in emergency situations.

A private, nonprofit organization that receives no public or government funding, the San Diego Humane Society and SPCA is supported by contributions, grants, bequests, investments, proceeds from its retail outlets and some fees for service.

ASILOMAR STATISTICS

In August of 2004, a summit of animal welfare industry leaders from across the nation convened at Asilomar in Pacific Grove, California, for the purpose of building bridges across varying philosophies, developing relationships and creating goals focused on significantly reducing the euthanasia of healthy and treatable companion animals in the United States. The statistical guidelines developed at this meeting came to be known as the Asilomar Accords.

The terminology used in this table is in accordance with the definitions prescribed by the Accords, as well as the San Diego Animal Welfare Coalition, which are available at www.sdhumane.org. The statistics focus on a "Live Release Rate," which is the percentage of pets that leave shelters alive. The percentage can be lower in open-admission shelters, which take in every animal regardless of health, age or behavior, than in limited-admission shelters like ours, which take in animal relinquishments and healthy transfers.

Socialization and positive reinforcement training are essential to raising safe, well-behaved companion animals

VETERINARY MEDICINE

The San Diego Humane Society and SPCA's Veterinary Medicine Department provides an extraordinary level of service to all animals that come through the Humane Society's doors. The Department evaluates all animals surrendered by their owners, impounded by Humane Officers or transferred from other animal welfare agencies. Not only does the Department provide basic medical treatments and routine spay/neuter surgeries, they also perform specialized surgeries and progressive treatments to help animals previously considered unadoptable.

| Total Animals Examined by a Veterinarian | 6,155 |
|--|----------|
| Spay/Neuter Surgeries for Humane Society Animals | 1,249 |
| Spay/Neuter Surgeries for Department of Animal Services' Animals | 3,161 |
| Animals Spayed/Neutered Through the Litter Abatement Program* | 68 |
| Outsourced Treatment Expense Incurred by the Humane Society | $26,875 |
| Pre-adoption and Post-adoption Veterinary Consultations Provided | 322 |

*The San Diego Humane Society and SPCA works to decrease pet overpopulation in a number of ways, including through the Litter Abatement Program (LAP). When a person relinquishes a litter of kittens or puppies to the San Diego Humane Society for adoption, we offer to spay and neuter the parent animal(s) for free and return them to their owners through the LAP program.

BEHAVIOR AND TRAINING

Experts in the field of animal welfare know that socialization and positive reinforcement training are essential to raising safe, well-behaved companion animals. Animals that have had some level of training are much more likely to stay in their homes and are also easier to place into new homes if they are given up for adoption. For all these reasons and more, the Humane Society's Behavior and Training Department plays a vital role in the organization and the community. The Department not only provides unparalleled public training classes for people and their animals, but also works with the animals in the Humane Society's care to make them more adoptable.

| Number of Humane Society Animals Receiving Individual Training* | 1,297 |
|---|-------|
| Pre-adoption and Post-adoption Consultations Provided | 430 |
| Adoption Follow-up Calls Completed | 2,550 |
| Private Consultations and Training Sessions for Owned Animals | 223 |
| Behavior Helpline Calls/Emails Received and Answered | 572 |
| People Instructed Through Public Training Classes | 1,273 |
| Behavior Training Classes Offered to the Public | 210 |

*This individual training is in addition to the basic training provided to most dogs in the adoption gallery.

INVESTIGATING ANIMAL CRUELTY AND NEGLECT

Investigating cases of animal cruelty and neglect, enforcing laws, protecting animals, educating the public on proper care for their animals and rescuing animals from emergency situations – the Humane Society's Investigations Department has a difficult, yet important job in the community.

| New Cases Opened | 1,089 |
|---|--------|
| Animals Seen in Field | 12,913 |
| Animals Taken into Custody | 103 |
| Notices of Violation | 58 |
| Pre-seizure and Post-seizure Hearings | 4 |
| Pet Shop, Stable/Feed Store, Rodeo and Circus Inspections | 51 |
| Speaking Engagements by Humane Officers | 19 |

ANIMAL RESCUE RESERVE

Part of the official County Disaster Team and operated by the Humane Society's Investigations Department, the San Diego Humane Society and SPCA's Animal Rescue Reserve (ARR) is specially trained and equipped to rescue animals threatened by natural and man-made disasters and other emergency situations. Thankfully, there were limited requests for emergency assistance during the 2006-2007 Fiscal Year, which helped ARR continue to prepare for future rescue needs.

| Animals Rescued from Emergency Situations | 4 |
|---|-------|
| Hours of ARR Volunteer Training | 4,140 |

The San Diego Humane Society and SPCA's Animal Rescue Reserve (ARR) is specially trained and equipped to rescue animals during disasters and other emergency situations.

Educating the community about companion animals is a key element in achieving our mission to enhance and strengthen the human-animal bond.

RAISING AWARENESS IN THE COMMUNITY

Educating the community about companion animals is a key element in achieving our mission to enhance and strengthen the human-animal bond. Both the Community Programs Department and the Public Relations and Marketing Department work consistently with the community and the media to get the word out about the Humane Society's programs and services.

VOLUNTEERS

The San Diego Humane Society and SPCA not only relies on the financial generosity of the community, but the organization also depends on people who volunteer their time to help animals. Volunteers assist with virtually every aspect of the Humane Society from direct animal care to participation in the Pet-Assisted Therapy Program to clerical and administrative tasks in the office.

DEVELOPMENT

As a private, nonprofit organization that receives no tax dollars or government funding, the San Diego Humane Society and SPCA relies on financial support from generous individuals, community groups and corporate sponsors. In fact, the Humane Society's Development Department generated approximately 75 percent of the Humane Society's income during this past fiscal year through donations from individuals, businesses and civic groups, and through a variety of fundraising efforts, including three annual special events.

| Total Individual Gifts Generated | 37,681 |
|---|--------|
| Total Bequests and Planned Gifts Received | 67 |

PET-ASSISTED THERAPY

For more than 30 years, the San Diego Humane Society and SPCA's Pet-Assisted Therapy Program has brought the unconditional love of animals to long-term care and assisted living facilities, children's homes, mental health centers and more. Pet-Assisted Therapy animals and volunteers make twice daily visits to facilities throughout the county, spending time with those who aren't able to have animals of their own.
